

BURSARIES - TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIPS

One of the core charitable functions of the BBTS is to award Bursaries to members and non-members to further their knowledge and experience in blood transfusion science/medicine. Applications are thus invited for the following categories;

Princess of Wales Memorial Scholarship

A scholarship open to individuals working outside the UK who wish to further their training, education or professional development in transfusion medicine by visiting institutions in the UK and attending the BBTS Annual Scientific Meeting. Members and non-members are eligible to apply and funding to a maximum of £2,000 will be awarded to pay for travel and accommodation expenses.

Overseas Travel Scholarship – Conference

A scholarship open to scientists to visit and present their work at an international meeting in a field related to transfusion medicine. Members of the BBTS under the age of 40 are eligible to apply and funding to a maximum of £1,250 will be awarded to pay for travel, accommodation and conference registration expenses.

Overseas Travel Scholarship – Project in a developing country

A scholarship open to individuals wishing to support an overseas project which will further knowledge in blood transfusion medicine in a developing country. The project could for example be delivery of an educational course or assistance in development of blood services. Members of the BBTS, producing a detailed project plan, are eligible to apply and funding to a maximum of £2,000 will be awarded to pay for travel and accommodation expenses.

Overseas Travel Scholarship – Work Experience

A scholarship open to individuals wishing to take up placements overseas to gain specific work experience in the field of transfusion medicine that would not be possible in the UK. Members of the BBTS under the age of 40 are eligible to apply and funding to a maximum of £1,250 will be awarded to pay for travel, accommodation and conference registration expenses.

Completed application forms for scholarships must arrive at the BBTS office, with relevant supporting paperwork, by the 31st March 2009.

BBTS, Enterprise House, Manchester Science Park, Lloyd Street North, Manchester, M15 6SE, Tel. 0161 232 7999, bbts@bbts.org.uk. Successful candidates for scholarships will be required to produce a report (no more than 1,000 words) within 3 months of the visit, and must produce receipts for all eligible expenditure.
