

Mind Over Splatter

Managing Major Haemorrhage - A Human Factors Approach

The North East RTC are proud to host their 'highly acclaimed' annual symposium open to clinical and laboratory staff interested in transfusion and human factors

Topics include

- Teamwork in the military setting
- Human Factors in the Blood Transfusion Process
- Major Haemorrhage
- Approaches to Damage Control Surgery
- Learning from mistakes (SHOT)
- Human Factors Theory
- The Pre-Hospital Setting
- 5 CPD points applied for from the Royal College of Anaesthetics

Thursday 17th October 2019

The Durham Centre, Belmont Industrial Estate, Durham, DH1 1TN

The event is FREE and includes lunch / refreshments programme with full details available soon

For registration please contact:
Janice Robertson on 0191 2026604
janice.robertson@nhsbt.nhs.uk